General Information

The Human Resources (HR) Office in Luxembourg administers the Foreign National Student Internship Program (FNSIP). The purpose of the Foreign National Student Internship Program is to provide students the opportunity and challenge of working in a foreign affairs arena and at the same time profit from their assistance. Interns may earn academic credit from their educational institutions and their supervisors are expected to serve as their mentors, providing feedback as necessary to the intern and the academic institution. The supervisor is required to complete an evaluation letter of recommendation or other documentation upon the successful completion of the internship. There are no benefits attached to the FNSIP, no compensation, leave accrual, nor any future employment rights.

Intern Eligibility Criteria:

- Be at least 18 years of age.
- Be currently enrolled in a post baccalaureate program in good academic standing in Luxembourg and able to provide a certified transcript or other school records to verify academic standing.
- Complete a "Convention de Stage" signed by the current academic institution. The Convention de Stage must include school medical insurance.
- Meet the requirements of the advertised internship opportunity.
- Demonstrate the potential to accomplish the type of work to be performed.
- Be able to obtain a sensitive but unclassified (SBU) security certification.
- Be able to receive a medical certification.
- Be available for a minimum of ten consecutive weeks, but this is flexible based on need.
- Prove that they are insured for the duration of the internship.

Qualifications/skills/abilities

- A good working knowledge (level III) in English
- Ability to conduct research and draft in English
- Excellent computer skills
- Students will be evaluated by the sections within the Embassy in which they have applied to based upon a completed application denoting the applicant's education, experience, training, and background. Please note that sections within the Embassy may make their final decision based upon a phone interview or by simply reviewing application materials.

How To Apply:

If you are interested in applying for an internship, you are required to complete an application form by the deadline contained in the internship announcement.

The selection process:

The Human Resources (HR) Office will work closely with the different sections on intern selection. HR advertises all internship opportunities on the Internet and social media websites. HR screens applications in accordance with supervisor preferences. The section makes the final selection and HR assists with obtaining security clearances and performs the check-in and check-out process to include an exit interview.

Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) Policy:

The U.S. Mission to Luxembourg is committed to fair and equal treatment for all without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, or sexual orientation.
